POLICY

1. School profile

Timor Primary School is a rural learning community situated in the Victorian Shire of Central Goldfields, 77 kilometres from Bendigo, 80kms from Ballarat and 8.7kms from Maryborough. The school is in the town of Timor, which was originally settled in Victorian gold rush times. When established in 1873 Timor was a thriving town of 30,000 residents. Today, with a small local population, only a third of students attending the school come from the Timor area.

We strive to provide a nurturing and challenging environment that empowers students to reach their personal best, both academically and socially.

2. School values, philosophy and vision
